If the author adds materials to or changes the text the Board has approved for publication, the author must submit these additions or changes to us before giving them to the publisher or anyone else. In such a case, please mark or otherwise clearly indicate the new material so we can expedite our review. Additional material that must be submitted includes, but is not limited to, photographs, photograph captions, illustrations, diagrams, tables, charts, or maps.

If the author disagrees with the Board's determination, the Federal Bureau of Investigation may ask the Board to reconsider its initial determination. Please include any and all information or explanation of the facts the author believes the Board should know. Citations or copies of similar references that show this information to have been previously released and already in the public domain are appropriate. Although mere listing of published citations may not necessarily be sufficient to change the Board's decision. If the Board upholds its initial decision, the Federal Bureau of Investigation on behalf of the author, may then formally appeal the Board's reconsideration decision. Such appeals go to the Agency's Associate Deputy Director for a final Agency decision. If the Federal Bureau of Investigation wishes to appeal, please do so within 30 days of the Board's reconsideration decision. The appeal must be in writing and must be sent to the Board's Chairman. Appeal documentation must include the material intended for publication and any supporting material the Associate Deputy Director should consider. Please note that in all cases, the decision of the ADD/CIA is final. If an appeal is NOT brought to the attention of ADD/CIA within applicable time limits, the original decision of the PRB will be adopted.
